The time has come and the peanut sales competition over. Of the 4 teams, Goober Gerontologists and Dry Roasted Bandits are neck and neck and it looks like it'll be a photo finish this year. Final counts to be revealed at the next meeting by our Big Goober Linda.

The real glory tonight was taken by our very own Grill-Master Skip Armstrong, who while battling droves of hungry Kiwanians still managed to cook up some amazing Brats and Burgers. The crowd showed their support by giving skip a well-deserved standing ovation which lasted longer than the food, with only a few inquiries into his 'special' ingredients. The burgers were accented by Wes Zain's rendering of Al's beans, some fresh fruits and veggies and Boars Head beef jerky. Overall a smashing success for our annual end of peanut sales cookout, with about 23 fellow members joining in on the festivities.

Circle K was represented by a lovely UNICEF box where they were collecting donations towards the Eliminate project. A program geared towards eliminating neonatal tetanus. We also had Mark and Carol Sleiter, sharing with us an opportunity to dine with and hear from Pete Sisoy. Pete is a 92 year old WW2 veteran and a better golfer than most, all while being the recipient of a Purple Heart, surviving 2 bullets by the same sniper. You can join them on Thursday November 6th and 6:30pm. Just call Mark or Carol to reserve your spot as they are expecting to sell out.

Make sure to join us next week on October 29th for committee and board of director's meetings.

"All life demands struggle. Those who have everything given to them become lazy, selfish, and insensitive to the real values of life. The very striving and hard work that we so constantly try to avoid is the major building block in the person we are today."
