The meeting started with Mike Marxer singing "God Bless America" and then Norm Record read a interesting Editorial article about "what it means to be an American". He then led us in prayer.

Mike Sutor fined Al Holmes for retiring, and forcing Severstal Steel to sell their Rouge operations. Al fined Adrienne. Mark Jackson fined Mark V. for using his metal detector, to detect "I.E.D.s" on Nightingale. Ray Scorboria fined Al, for not giving a shout out to his grandchildren in the newsletter last week. Ray's grandkids helped us make sandwiches for N.O.A.H., and Al gave everyone else who was there a "Atta Boy", but not the kids.

Speaker for the evening was Judge Mark Sommers, from the Dearborn Court. The court handles 500,000 cases a year, from parking tickets to felonies. Judge Sommers is running for re-election this November.

Adrienne Zain, says the students at U of M are excited about building a "Circle K" club, and she is doing her best to get things started. "Big Goober" Linda Michalak, introduced "Lil goober" John Curran, and wants us to start thinking about the Peanut Sale, coming this September.

It was supposed to be a "Committee Night", but since El Presidente Kerry has the only key to our Post Office Box, and because the box had an official "OVERFLOW" sticker on the P.O. box, we didn't have a truck big enough to bring all the pent-up mail to the meeting. Needless, to say, Mr. President's was fined heavily for this, although he tried to explain "Why". Next week will be a committee and Board meeting meeting.

Waiting for the Dog Days of Summer,
